

Michael Siller - Keynote Speaker

Biography

Since 2012, Michael Siller has been supporting executives, business owners and project managers in times of uncertainty and change: to gain clarity for great decisions, to influence organizational culture in a lasting way and to shine light on their blindspots to lead their teams with decisiveness towards more trust and cooperation.

Siller specializes as a coach, trainer, and speaker in Leadership, Intercultural Management, and Organizational Culture Change.

Michael Siller's coaching sessions are filled with empathy, curiosity, and passion to enable new solutions for old challenges. Since 2016 Michael Siller has also been the Area Director for Business Network International (BNI), Vienna. Leaders of culturally diverse teams appreciate working with Michael because of his extensive international work experience. Michael Siller has worked in Germany, Italy, Austria, France, the USA, and the Middle East. He is a dual-citizen (Italy/USA) and calls Europe and the U.S. his home.

In his former career, Michael Siller worked as an actor, singer, and dancer for 15 years internationally.

Keynote Speech: The Impact of Coaching on Leadership and Organizational Culture

In his keynote speech, Michael Siller will discuss how communication and leadership shapes and influences organizational culture and the impact of coaching in creating the desired change.